

About MAMA

The Missouri Association for Museums and Archives (MAMA) is a nonprofit organization that serves to facilitate and encourage communication, cooperation, and collaboration among cultural and historical institutions, sites, and organizations throughout Missouri and its bordering states. MAMA also engages in advocacy on a state and national level, while providing members with various opportunities to gain access to resources, share expertise, attend workshops, and to network with colleagues from other institutions. Institutional members are highlighted on MAMA's webpage.

MAMA membership is open to any individual, organization, institution, site, or other cultural or historical affiliated group within the state of Missouri and its surrounding states such as, but not limited to:

- Ⓒ Public and private institutions, including state and local historical societies, archives, libraries, museums (science, art, history, children's, etc.), historic sites, national and state parks, and zoos
- Ⓒ Paid and unpaid staff members, board members, and/or friends of these organizations
