FRIDAY     October 27

REGISTRATION  12:30 pm
Conference registration at Missouri Department of Conservation Conference Room, 3500 S Baltimore St, Kirksville, MO 63501

CONFERENCE SESSIONS BEGIN at 1:00 PM
Missouri Department of Conservation Conference Room

1:00     WELCOME by Candace Sall
1:10     But the Water Has Never Been This High Before by Shelly Croteau, Missouri State Archives
1:40     How an eVolunteer Corp Can Make a Difference by Kelsey Berryhill and Mary Stansfield, Missouri State Archives
2:10    BREAK
2:20    Museum Hack Audience Engagement
3:00    Integrated Pest Management by Audrey Gayou, MU Museum of Anthropology

CHECK IN AT CONFERENCE HOTEL

6:00    Join us on Friday evening for heavy hors d’oeuvres at the Truman State University Art Gallery, which will be followed by a planetarium showing at the Del and Norma Robison Planetarium.

SATURDAY     October 28

MAMA Board and Membership Meeting  8:15 am
Truman State University, Student Union Building, Georgian room.
Membership Meeting with election of board members running for the 2017-2019 term (see nominations list).
All MAMA members welcome - if not yet a MAMA member, you can join at the conference.

CONFERENCE SESSIONS BEGIN at 9:00 AM
Truman State University, Student Union Building, Georgian Room

9:00    The Impact of Museums on Citizenship Education from the Nelson-Atkins by Christine Boutros, The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art; Kate Crawford, Birmingham Museum of Art; and Tracy Fuller, Catholic Charities
9:45    Missouri Humanities Council: Grant and Program Support for Museums and Archives by Mark Livengood, Austin Skinner
10:15    Conserving Missouri’s Racial Past by Kristin Schwain, University of Missouri
10:45    BREAK
11:00    Making a Difference with School Groups: Creating Educational Programs using Primary Source Documents, Museum Exhibits, and Artifacts by Mark Adams, Truman Library and Museum
11:45    From Basements to Attics: Local Records Preservation in N. Missouri by Becky Carlson and Mary McIntosh, Missouri State Archives
12:30    Award Presentation and Lunch: Build Your Own Salad and Soup Buffet
1:00    Key Note by Doran Cart
National WWI Museum and Memorial, WWI 100th Anniversary
2:00    BREAK
2:15    Race Project KC: Interpreting a Divisive History to Overcome a Divisive Present by Julie McPike, Freedom’s Frontier National Heritage, and Angel Tucker, Johnson County Library
2:45    The Student Archivist: How Real World Experiences Enhances Study and the Community by Ross Edelstein, Truman State University
3:15    CONFERENCE CONCLUSION
SATURDAY October 28

MAMA Board and Membership Meeting
8:15 am
Truman State University, Student Union Building, Georgian room.
Membership Meeting with election of board members running for the 2017-2019 term (see nominations list).
All MAMA members welcome - if not yet a MAMA member, you can join at the conference.

CONFERENCE SESSIONS BEGIN at 9:00 AM
Truman State University, Student Union Building, Georgian Room

9:00
The Impact of Museums on Citizenship Education from the Nelson-Atkins by Christine Boutros, The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art; Kate Crawford, Birmingham Museum of Art; and Tracy Fuller, Catholic Charities

9:45
Missouri Humanities Council: Grant and Program Support for Museums and Archives by Mark Livengood, Austin Skinner

10:15
Conserving Missouri’s Racial Past by Kristin Schwain, University of Missouri

10:45
BREAK

11:00
Making a Difference with School Groups: Creating Educational Programs using Primary Source Documents, Museum Exhibits, and Artifacts by Mark Adams, Truman Library and Museum

11:45
From Basements to Attics: Local Records Preservation in N. Missouri by Becky Carlson and Mary McIntosh, Missouri State Archives

12:30
Award Presentation and Lunch: Build Your Own Salad and Soup Buffet

1:00
Key Note by Doran Cart National WWI Museum and Memorial, WWI 100th Anniversary

2:00
BREAK

2:15
Race Project KC: Interpreting a Divisive History to Overcome a Divisive Present by Julie McPike, Freedom’s Frontier National Heritage, and Angel Tucker, Johnson County Library

2:45
The Student Archivist: How Real World Experiences Enhances Study and the Community by Ross Edelstein, Truman State University

3:15 CONFERENCE CONCLUSION

SPECIAL THANKS