

MAMA News

June 1, 2018

Call for Proposals

Only a month left to submit your proposal to the 2018 MAMA Conference.

The deadline for submissions is Monday, July 2nd. We invite individuals to submit proposals electronically to Sarah Wilson at <mailto:sara@stjosephmuseum.org>. Proposals may also be sent by mail to MAMA, PO Box 996, Columbia, MO 65205

Proposals should include:

- Name, Institution/Organization/Company, Address, Phone, Email
- Title of Proposed Session
- Presenter's Names and Affiliations
- Description of Session
- Choose 30 or 45 minute session

2018 MAMA Conference Call for Proposals.pdf

Conferences

Gateway Library Instruction Conference

Friday, July 13, 8:30-4:30, Washington University, St. Louis

Registration is now open for the 2018 Gateway Library Instruction Conference. This one-day conference features speakers from around the St. Louis region talking about topics such as:

- E-Learning
- Faculty/Librarian Collaborations
- Active Learning & the ACRL Framework

- Conferences
- Events
- Workshops
- Things to Think About
- Call for Content

- Instructional Design
- Classroom Engagement Techniques
- High School/Cross Library Collaborations
- Brainstorming Solutions to your Instruction Issues: Possibilities include communicating the value of your instruction to faculty, student learning assessment, classroom engagement, etc.

This year's conference will be held at Washington University in St. Louis. As always, this is a FREE conference with lunch and parking provided at no charge to you. What a great way to meet other librarians doing instruction in all types of library settings! Check out the conference website for more information:

<https://libguides.wustl.edu/GLIC2018/Registration>

If you're interested in submitting a proposal to facilitate, we are still looking for passionate speakers! Please see the Call for Facilitators page on the website:

<https://libguides.wustl.edu/GLIC2018/Facilitators>

Events

Past and Present Car Show

Saturday, June 2, 10:00-2:00, Wyeth-Tootle Mansion, St. Joseph

A benefit for the Wyeth-Tootle Mansion, the show will feature antique and unusual cars courtesy of the Knuckle Draggers Car Club. There will be vendors, music, a pinstriper, giveaways, food, and special guest Buford T. Justice. Visitors can also tour the Wyeth-Tootle Mansion. Admission to the Wyeth-Tootle Mansion and the Past and Present Car Show will be $1 per person and free for youth 8 years and under during the event.

<http://stjosephmuseum.org/>

Museum After Hours: Missouri Bicentennial Wednesday, June 6, 7:00 pm, Missouri State Museum, Jefferson City

Missouri celebrates its 200th birthday on Aug. 10, 2021. The State Historical Society of Missouri is committed to coordinating a year-long, statewide celebration that brings together rural and urban communities in projects, programs and events that contribute to a better understanding of the state and its complex heritage. Join

Michael Sweeney, Ph.D., as he discusses what plans are in place and how you can join in the commemoration of Missouri's statehood.

<https://mostateparks.com/event/71351/museum-after-hours-missouri-bicentennial>

Your Missouri Story: Finding Your History and Helping Write It Through the Bicentennial

Saturday, June 12, 2:00 pm, Washington Historical Society, Washington

The State Historical Society of Missouri has been entrusted to collect, preserve, and share the state's history since 1898, giving a voice to the people who helped build this country. Join SHSMO archivists Claire P. Marks and Kathleen Seale to learn tips to help you discover your history within the Society's vast collection. Then SHSMO's bicentennial coordinator Michael Sweeney will discuss what plans are in place for celebrating Missouri's 200th birthday on August 10, 2021. SHSMO is committed to coordinating a yearlong, statewide celebration that brings together rural and urban communities in projects, programs, and events contributing to a better understanding of the state and its complex heritage.

<https://shsmo.org/events/#missouristory>

Growing Up in a Land Called Honalee: The Sixties in the Lives of American Children

Thursday, June 21, 7:00 pm, Missouri State Archives, Jefferson City

In his latest book, Growing Up in a Land Called Honalee: The Sixties in the Lives of American Children, author Joel P. Rhodes examines how the multiple social, cultural and political changes between President John F. Kennedy's inauguration in 1961 and the end of the United States involvement in Vietnam in 1973 manifested themselves in the lives of preadolescent Americans. He connects the formative world of those born between 1956 and 1970, exploring how this group understood the historical forces of the 1960s as children. By exploring important issues and iconic images from the period, Rhodes focuses not only on the immediate imprint that the 1960s had on these young people, but also how their perspective on the era influenced them as adults. Join us as Rhodes combines a certain bittersweet nostalgia with a fascinating analysis of the lives of mid-century Americans.

<https://friendsofmsa.org/events/index.php>

Summer Nights at the Daum Presents: A Summer Social

Thursday, June 28, 6:00 pm, Daum Museum of Contemporary Art, Sedalia

Join us for a summer social that features new exhibitions and a gallery walk-through with museum director Thomas Piche Jr. and musical entertainment by Alan Weaver and Will Sturges.

<https://www.daummuseum.org/event/summer-nights-at-the-daum-presents-a-summer-social/>

Workshops

Arrangement and Description for Archivists

Monday, June 14, 9:30-3:30, Washington University West Campus Library and Conference Center, St. Louis

The Association of St. Louis Area Archivists (ASLAA) is hosting a workshop, Arrangement and Description for Archivists, led by Pamela Hackbart-Dean, Director of the Special Collections Research Center at Southern Illinois University. The workshop will take place on June 14th from 9:30 am to 3:30 pm at the Washington University West Campus Library and Conference Center in St. Louis, Missouri. The workshop is open to archivists of all skill levels free of charge. To register please contact Jennifer Clark at jennifer_clark@partner.nps.gov or 314-655-1631. This workshop has been generously supported by the Midwest Archives Conference Speakers Bureau program.

Things to Think About

Missouri Bicentennial

It's never too early to start thinking about what you want to do for Missouri's bicentennial celebrations. Head to <https://missouri2021.org/> to learn more!

Call for Content

Put me on your press release/events mailing list and you can add one more person to your stats!

<mailto:mary.stansfield@sos.mo.gov>

Missouri Association for Museums and Archives

membership@missourimuseums.org

<https://mama.wildapricot.org/>

Unsubscribe